

REGULATIONS

The 14th April, 1969

No. 1690-5FR-69/9470.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India and all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Governor of Haryana is pleased to make the following rules further to amend the Punjab Civil Services Rules, Volume I, as are applicable to the Haryana Government employees, namely :—

- (1) These rules may be called the Punjab Civil Services, Volume I (Haryana Sixth Amendment) Rules, 1969.
- (2) In the Punjab Civil Services Rules, Volume I, Part II, in the Study Leave Rules, 1963, Appendix 20 in rule 18, for sub-rule (1), the following shall be substituted :—

“(1) If a Government Servant resigns or retires from service without returning to duty after a period of study leave or within the stipulated period after such return to duty, he shall be required to refund—

- (i) double the amount of leave salary, study allowance, cost of fees, travelling and other expenses, if any, incurred by the State Government ; and
- (ii) the actual amount, if any, of the cost incurred by other agencies, e.g. Foreign Governments, Foundations, Trusts, etc., in connection with the course of study, together with interest thereon at Government rates for the time being in force on Government loans from the date of demand before his resignation is accepted or permission to retire is granted :

Provided that the competent authority may order :—

- (a) that nothing in this rule shall apply to a Government servant who on return to duty from study leave is permitted to retire from the service on medical grounds ;
- (b) that the amount required to be refunded under this rule shall, in the case of a Government servant who on return to duty from study leave is permitted to resign from the service and to take up employment under a statutory or autonomous body or in any institution under the control of the Government, be reduced to an amount equal to the expenditure incurred by the Government and the said other agencies in respect of the leave salary, study allowance, cost of fees, travelling and other expenses sanctioned to him during the period of study leave together with interest thereon ”.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT

The 14th May, 1969

No. 3672-ASOII-HBII-69/11907.—Whereas the Governor of Haryana is satisfied that the State of Haryana is threatened with an outbreak of a dangerous epidemic disease, viz. cholera and the ordinary provisions of law for the time being in force are insufficient for the purpose;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 2 of the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897, the Governor of Haryana makes the following regulations, namely :—

1. These regulations may be called the Haryana Epidemic Diseases, Regulations, 1969.
2. In these regulations—
 - (a) “Epidemic disease” means cholera;
 - (b) “Inspection post” means any place which may be declared by the Deputy Commissioner to be an inspection post; and
 - (c) “Inspecting officer” means inspecting officer appointed by the Chief Medical Officer of the District.
3. An inspecting officer who is unavoidably prevented from discharging all or any of the functions may by order in writing, appoint any senior medical officer, medical officer, senior sanitary inspector, or sanitary inspector temporarily, to discharge the functions of inspecting officer and the senior medical officer, medical officer, senior sanitary inspector, or sanitary inspector so appointed shall so far as such functions are concerned, be deemed for the purpose of these regulations to be an inspecting officer.
4. An inspecting officer may, at his inspection post, direct any person travelling by railway to remain in the carriage in which he is travelling or to leave the carriage in which he is travelling and come on the platform or on the line, and may prohibit any such person from leaving the platform or line or the inspection post.
5. An inspecting officer may, at his inspection post, make a medical inspection and examination of any person travelling by railway or by road in such manner and to such extent as he thinks necessary in order to ascertain whether there is any reason to believe or suspect that such person is or may be suffering from cholera provided that such inspection or examination shall not be made in any manner or to any extent to which such person objects.

6. An inspecting officer may put to any such person travelling by railway or by road any question he thinks fit in order to ascertain whether there is reason to believe or suspect that such person is or may be suffering from cholera and that person shall be bound to answer truly any question so put to him.

7. Where as a result of such inspection or examination or otherwise the inspecting officer considers that there is reason to believe or suspect that the person so inspected or examined or otherwise is or may be infected with an epidemic disease, or where any person makes any objection under the proviso to regulation 5, the inspecting officer may direct that such person be removed to, and detained in any isolation camp or hospital established by the Deputy Commissioner, until the inspecting officer certifies in writing that in his opinion there is no longer any reason to believe or suspect such person to be infected by Cholera.

8. Any person in respect of whom a direction has not been given under regulation 7 may apply to the inspecting officer to be allowed to attend upon any person in respect of whom such a direction has been given and the inspecting officer shall, except for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, grant such application.

9. Any person who has made an application under regulation 8, and whose application has been granted shall be detained in such building, tent or other place whether near the inspection post or elsewhere as the inspecting officer may direct.

10. Any person in respect of whom a direction under regulation 7, or regulation 9, has been given shall not leave any place in which inspecting officer has directed him to be detained until the inspecting officer or a registered Medical Practitioner nominated by the inspecting officer in this behalf certifies in writing that in his opinion, there is no longer any reason to believe or suspect such person to be infected by Cholera or that there is no longer any reason for retained such person as the case may be.

11. An inspecting officer may order the destruction of any article which is or has been in the possession of a person in respect of whom the inspecting officer considers to have been in dangerous proximity to such person, provided that compensation may, in discretion of the officer empowered by regulation 13, to award the same, be paid for the destruction or injury to any article in possession of the said person.

12. Any inspecting officer may enter any premises for the purpose [of inoculation or for inspection of a case of cholera or suspected case of cholera or for disinfection.

13. Applications for the payment of compensation under regulation 11, may be made to the district Magistrate of the district concerned who shall upon receipt of any such application determine by order, in writing the amount of such compensation if any, and such order shall be final.

14. These regulations shall remain in force from the date of issue to the 31st December, 1969.
